Cheese for needy scheduled

Those who are eligible under federal guidelines will be able to receive cheese and milk between the hours of 11 a.m. and 4 p.m. at the Beverly School, 35408 Beverly Rd., according to program coordinator, Marie Butler.

"We are not sure but there is some talk that we will also receive a shipment of butter," said Mrs. Butler. "Obviously, if it's true it's a welcomed bit of news for those who need it."

Recipients are urged to bring documentation to prove their economic status. For further information contact Mrs. Butler at 595-3973.

Annual Mayor's party is set

A "Country Western Dance", sponsored by the Committee to re-elect Mayor William Oakley, will be held from 9 p.m. until 1 p.m. at the Progressive Hall, 11580 Ogza Rd., on Sat., March 19.

Tickets are $7.50 and will include beer and set-ups. Music will be provided by "The Gentlemen". For ticket information, telephone 941-4274.

Dress is casual, and square dancing is also on the program.

Getting ready for Michigan Week

Although the city didn't exchange mayors during last year's "Michigan Week", City Council last night began making plans for the program, scheduled for May 14 through May 21.

"Mayor Oakley, in a note to council said, 'that it matters not to me whether or not we participate this year in this activity (Mayor's Exchange).'"

"If a member of council has some particular interest in exchanging with a particular community, we would be happy to attempt to arrange such an exchange. On the other hand I am confident we could have a very nice Michigan Week without participating in the Mayor's Exchange Program," the Mayor said.

Beware of tornadoes

Wayne County Executive William Lucas, in cooperation with Governor James Blanchard, has declared the week of March 20 through 26 as "Tornado Safety Week" in the county.

All residents are urged to familiarize themselves with the established tornado warning systems and to be prepared to take appropriate action should the threat of a tornado become a reality.

Shortened year for Van Buren Schools?

Although no action was taken Monday night, the Van Buren School Board did hear suggestions to "shorten the school year by at least three weeks to erase the deficit."

The suggestion was offered by School Board President Connie Brinkerhoff, who later elaborated:

"People who care for this school district and who care for their children's education are asking me what we're going to do about the schools and the deficit," Mrs. Brinkerhoff said, "right now there isn't anything concrete."

"However, we do have a problem — an estimated $400,000 deficit facing us at the end of the current school year, and we must address ourselves to this problem because the State Constitution says we must balance our budget or we are in violation thereof."

"I therefore proposed to the School Board that we cut the school year by at least three weeks," Mrs. Brinkerhoff said.

However, although the deficit wasn't an agenda item, board members pointed out the urgency of a solution to the problem. "Something must be done, and we can't avoid the problem," Mrs. Brinkerhoff said.

Last week voters in the school district went to the polls and approved two millage renewal packages but turned down the board's request for an additional 3 mills for school operations.

"People are asking me when we're going to restore programs and that we, the board, keep asking for additional millage, but they apparently don't realize that the voters haven't approved any additional mills for some time."

Mrs. Brinkerhoff stressed that it would have taken the 3 mills

Doing their duty

Van Buren School District residents Myrtle Gasilo and Charles Dubisky did their duty last week and cast their ballots during a special millage election. The schools which the voters turned down and an additional 3 mills to restore some of the programs eliminated from the schools. Moreover, because the schools have cut back the school day from six to five hours and have eliminated programs such as art, music, physical education and other extracurricular activities, the North Central Association of Secondary Schools and Colleges has placed local schools on "probation."

The accreditation is essential for acceptance to most colleges and universities.

"People do not realize the ramifications when you cut back your programs," said Mrs. Brinkerhoff. "Most just shrug their shoulders and say 'so received some good and bad news as the voters approved two renewal requests but rejected the board's request for additional money for school operations."

what,' but then their kids try to get into a college and find a score of obstacles hurled in front of them."

"We were placed on probation because of the cutbacks and they are telling us we're going to remain in jeopardy until those cutbacks are restored," she said.

The boardroom also had some student visitors Monday night who were concerned about the school district's inability to erase the violations and return school programs in order to meet minimal standards.

The board did authorize Supt. Elvin Peets to communicate with the NCA "to assure them that the school district is working diligently to erase the violations."

'DetRo Case'

Is it back to 'square one'?

Is it back to "square one" with DetRo Recovery Products, the company that is seeking to construct a sludge plant in the city of Romulus?

It may appear so.

Michael Feiler, who is representing the city in the litigation against DetRo, appeared before city council recently to update the case.

DetRo is suing the city because it refuses to rezone a parcel of land for the construction. The company initially proposed its sludge composting plant on approximately 133 acres of light industrial land, zoned M-1.

However, the site plan approval was denied by the Planning Commission on Sept. 15, 1980. Subsequently, DetRo officials proposed two other sites that were rejected. They took the city to court and the battle continues.

At the council meeting on Feb. 22, councilman Jimmie Raspberry urged Feiler to continue to pursue "the issue to make sure that DetRo not be permitted to build in this city."

In a memorandum to Marianne Banks, the Mayor Pro Tem, Feiler stated that "... we have presently filed with the Court of Appeals a composite motion:

- 1 — To remand this case to the Wayne County Circuit Court for a delayed motion for new trial.
- 2 — To allow certification of the supplemental record which we have filed with the Wayne County Circuit Court.
- 3 — To extend the time for filing our brief on appeal.

"As I had indicated, the motion to remand for a new trial is based upon representation from opposing council that he would not object to a new trial, and a motion is the proper way to proceed in the Court of Appeals."

"In response to Councilman Raspberry, and what I perceive to be the unanimous feeling of each member of the council, I will endeavor either directly or through Mr. Hitchcock to keep council fully advised as to each step of these proceedings," Feiler stated.

Stephen J. Hitchcock has taken over from Charles Lowther as the city's attorney.

City must make CDBG decision

$120,000 for various programs

Working against a March 15 deadline, the city council is expected to approve the city's 1983 Community Development Block Grant priorities, despite the objections of at least one of its members.

Patrick A. Hogan, Community Development Director, informed the city and council that the proposed use of the initial entitlement of $120,000 must be published on March 9 and submitted to the proper authorities by March 15.

"After a review of all comments, suggestions and requests made known at the public hearing last week," Hogan stated, "and considering all those proposed uses in light of the federal regulations for use of CDBG funds, and also taking into account the needs of the community, it is my recommendation that the initial entitlements be allocated thusly:

- Romulus Post Office Improvements - $45,000;
- Wayne Road Widening - $40,000;
- Eager Beaver Project for the

- blind - $10,000
- Minor Home Repairs - $11,000;
- Land Improvement: Farm-A-Lot - $2,000; and
- Administration - $2,000

However, councilman Jimmie Raspberry said he disagreed on where the priorities were placed and recommended that more funds be earmarked for the home repairs.

"I believe that we definitely are not providing adequate funds through the CDBG for our residents to utilize on home repairs," Raspberry said. "Also, I believe that too much is being earmarked for special interest groups."

Raspberry recommended that some of the money be channeled to recreation programs for the youth of the city, such as providing South Little League with the baseball diamond they had requested.

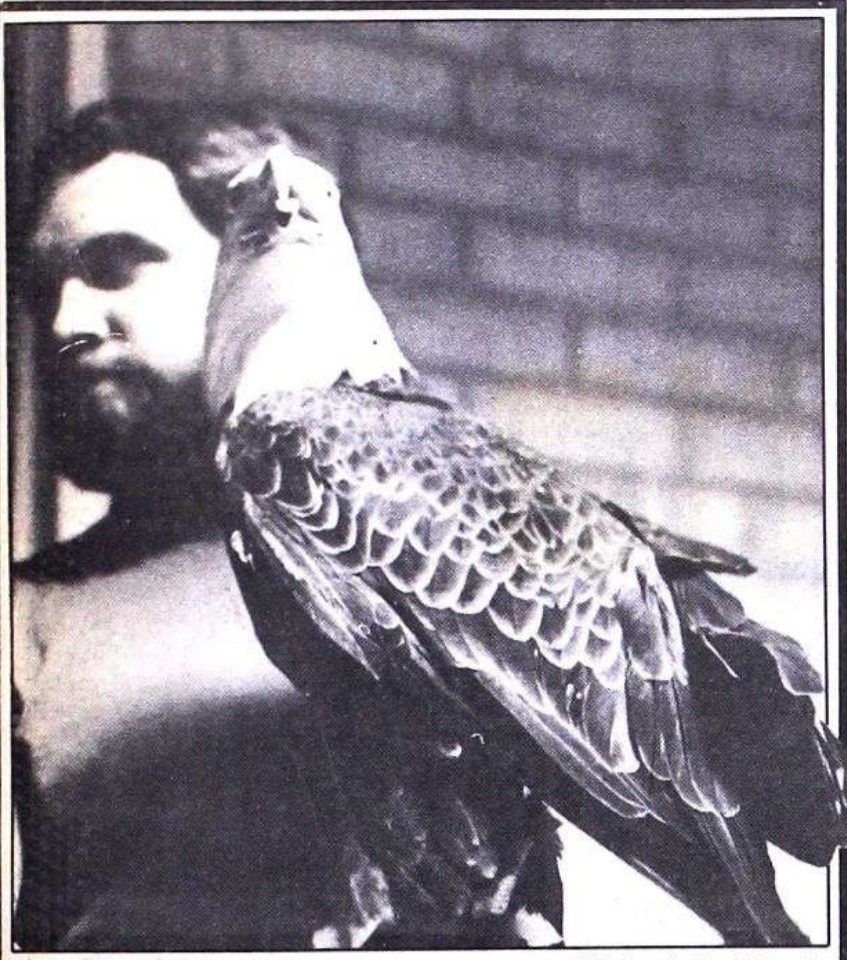

"Our priority must be our people. They come first," Raspberry added.

"Therefore, I hope you will agree with me that Wayne County General Hospital cannot be permitted to continue to operate with huge yearly, predictable, unending budget deficits," he pointed out.

"Regarding the future status of the Hospital, I am in the process of reviewing the future direction of the hospital and am hopeful that this review will result in substantial benefit to all of the citizens of Wayne County. You should know that I am also requesting the assistance of all appropriate union leaders, who represent hospital employees, in connection with this matter," Lucas concluded.

Eagle's eye

More than 1,000 students in the Wayne-Westland Community Schools met a very special person last week as Ron Geiger of the National Wildlife Federation and his companion Migisiwa came for a one-day visit. Migisiwa, a 13-year-old bald eagle who has been in captivity since 1970 after a collision with a car in Florida, has the job of promoting his species as part of the NWF's nationwide lecture tour. While eagle is an endangered species, Migisiwa got good news about his relatives in Michigan, one of five states where the bald eagle is no longer an endangered species. In fact, 97 active pairs of eagles produced 87 offspring last year. Migisiwa's visit was tied in with work being done through the district's Sasfras Trails Nature Center, under the direction of David Bydowski, as well as the recently concluded Outdoorama.

Tax funds at stake

Van Buren to receive W-W school land

Members of the Wayne-Westland School Board unanimously agreed Monday evening, that perhaps it really is better to give than to receive.

In an effort to protect the district from a loss of nearly $1.2 million in tax funding, board members approved a resolution which would transfer jurisdiction of a small section of land to the Van Buren School System.

This measure was taken, according to school officials, in an attempt to prevent the lowering of the millage received in Westland by one mill — an action possible according to a recent State Supreme Court decision prohibiting more than one tax rate within the same school district boundaries.

The section of land in question lies within Van Buren township where the school portion of the millage is levied at 7.65 mills, according to John Baracy, assistant superintendent for finance.

Baracy explained to the board members and audience that by virtue of the recent court decision, should the land in question remain within the Wayne-Westland School District boundaries, the lower rate would be law prevail, thus lowering by one mill the present 8.65 rate on which the Wayne-Westland budget is predicted.

"One half of the total State Equalized Valuation in the district would then dictate the allocated millage for all," Baracy commented.

He noted that the district would not, however, lose any debt retirement levy in the small section, "that remains constant," he said. "The loss in taxes from these 23 homes is estimated at $24,000, and the operating portion will be picked up because of the state aid act," he added. "The loss to the district in revenue by giving up the property is almost nil, compared to the loss we would suffer if the millage were dropped," Baracy concluded.

Affected by the change, tentatively agreed to by Van Buren officials according to Wayne-Westland spokesmen, will be 23 homes but only six students presently enrolled at Wayne-Westland schools. Of these, three are scheduled to graduate before the transfer becomes effective, and the option of remaining in Wayne-Westland will be offered to the other three. Officials commented that Van Buren had also agreed to this provision of the tentative arrangement.

School Superintendent Dr. Timothy Dyer commented that only students already attending Wayne-Westland schools would be offered the option of remaining. He noted that bus transportation would also be no problem for those in question as the regular bus schedule allowed a stop "right across the street" from the homes involved.

The next step in the process of the transfer, according to officials, will be the negotiations with the Van Buren district on an official basis and the attainment of the approval of the Wayne County Intermediate School District.

Views On Dental Health

By PHILIP MEIZELS, D.D.S.

SWEET TOOTH - NO TOOTH

If you have a "sweet tooth", you'll probably have to pay a penalty for your pleasure. This is especially true for youngsters and that penalty will be found in the form of increased dental decay. Too much sugar or sugar-sweetened foods taken too often bring on the plaque brigade in full force. When the bacteria in plaque (an invisible film on your teeth) combines with sugar, it forms an acid which eats away at teeth causing decay and a host of other problems. Plaque has a sweet tooth of its own. Don't feed it.

To prove the point, a dental team in Connecticut asked the mothers of almost a thousand children to keep complete reords of what their children ate for one complete week. The children's teeth were then examined and the results were matched with the diet diaries. The findings showed that children who liked more between-meal sweet snacks had more cavities than those who ate less. They also found that children who ate more fruit and vegetable treats had fewer cavities than those who liked candy-cookie-cake treats.

Keep that sweet tooth under control. You'll be glad you did.

Discovery for Enjoyment

Experimental Science course is planned at WCCC Western Center

The Wayne County Community College - Western Center at 9555 Haggerty Road, Belleville in cooperation with September Days Senior Center and the Van Buren Adult Education Program, will offer beginning March 23 a series of six sessions each Wednesday from 1:30 to 3:00 titled "Discovery for Enjoyment."

Discovery for Enjoyment is an experimental course with no cost, books, homework or credits. The need is for participants to observe and evaluate each session. The results might determine if the course should be added to the CS-CE curriculum at the college.

Participants need no science background.

The first session will investigate the force of gravity with demonstrations that bring out some of its still not understood characteristics.

The second session takes a look at simple machines, their advantages and some problems with which you may not agree. No math. Many demonstrations.

The third deals with sound, waves, ripple tanks and some things that make people wonder. Many demonstrations.

Number four is light itself and the whole spectrum from radio waves to cosmic rays. Included are lenses and lasers, rainbows and reflections. Enlightening demonstrations.

Five uncovers some of the mystery of electricity and magnetic fields with demonstrations.

The last session is electronics made simple with demonstrations designed to entertain and amuse.

The class size will be limited. If you will attend the six sessions register now by calling 699-7474 Monday, Tuesday, Thursday or Friday (not the Community College), ask for the Senior Center and tell them to register you for Discovery for Enjoyment.

Parents seek asbestos solution

Two recent television programs about asbestos: "A Dusty Way to Death" and "Asbestos: Lethal Legacy", have made several parents aware of the asbestos problem in the Romulus High School.

School officials in the financially troubled Romulus School District have unsuccessfully tried twice to pass a millage to correct the asbestos problem. Concerned parents formed a group called A. R. C. (Asbestos Removal Committee). These parents have been working on the asbestos problem since January along with school officials. The committee's executive board consists of Phyllis Kreft, Sylvia Shahan, Joan Omarzu, Jeanne Neidermeyer, and Sandra Krietsch. Information from the E.P.A. states that airborne asbestos fibers can cause a chronic and debilitating lung disease called asbestosis. Asbestos is now associated with lung cancer called mesothelioma and cancer of the esophagus, stomach, colon, and other organs. Once asbestos fibers enter into a person's body, they cannot be removed.

Years ago when Romulus High was built, 8 to 10 percent asbestos containing material was sprayed in the ceilings of the 100, 200, 300, 400, hallways and adjoining rooms for acoustical insulation purposes. These asbestos fibers are now falling from the ceiling and will continue to do so until the asbestos is removed.

The E.P.A. does not recognize any safe level of exposure to asbestos in schools and at this time they cannot estimate the exact degree of risk associated even with low level exposure.

The ceilings in the above-mentioned hallways and rooms have a crumbly appearance.

A leaking roof can cause portions of ceiling to fall thus releasing thousands of asbestos fibers into student filled halls and rooms. Any contact with the ceiling will release new fibers into the air. Even cleaning of rooms and halls and other activities can keep asbestos fibers airborne for up to 80 hours.

Principal, E.L. Sheffield recently warned students of the danger of contact and ordered the coaches in the high school to stop all after school running in the halls for sport related events.

The Romulus School Board has voted for a special election on April 18 to vote on the Asbestos Removal Bond Proposition. The estimated cost of the bond in the first year will be less than half (.5) a mill.

Interested citizens can contact A. R. C. through the Romulus Board of Education at 941-1600, Ext. 220.

Local JA's attend Economic Club talks

Five Junior Achievers from JA's Ypsilanti Center attended a recent meeting of the Detroit Economic Club at Cobo Hall. The student Achievers were the guests of John C. Fountain, Vice President of University Relations, Eastern Michigan.

The speaker was Paul W. McCracken, Ph.D., Professor of Business Administration, University of Michigan. The Achievers had the opportunity to meet McCracken personally, and to ask questions at a specially arranged conference.

Also present was Dr. John Porter, President of EMU, who met all of the students and had lunch with them.

Attending meetings of the Economic Club of Detroit is a very special occasion for high school students participating in the Junior Achievement Program.

Huron to hike sewer rates

The Huron Township Board of Trustees will study a proposal from the township engineer that outlines the reasons for the increase in the sewer rates.

Engineer Jerry Jarrett is urging township officials to hike the rate in order to reflect the increase that is being handed down by the county and also to cover an anticipated deficit in the sewer fund.

"He's asking for a small rate increase that would come to about $20 a year for the average user," said Township Treasurer Christine Gamber. "Given the present status of the fund, I believe there are no alternatives."

Mrs. Gamber pointed out that "although no one likes paying more or higher utility rates, I believe that the residents of this township are behind us."

In a letter last month to the residents, A. J. Haener, Township Supervisor, explained the present fix the township is in relative to the sewer fund.

The letter reads, in part:

"At a Huron Township Board of Trustee meeting on January 19, 1983, it was moved that all residents on our sewer system be notified regarding a serious increase in sewerage rates as dictated by the Wayne County Department of Public Works. When Huron Township contracted to go into the Flat Rock Sewage System, the rate was $80 per million gallons. This has gradually risen to $1,250 per million gallons, the rate you are presently being billed at.

"This rate increase is due to the closing of the Ford Michigan Casting Plant and increased operating costs. The rate is presently $2,400 per million gallons.

"Since the Township did not bill beyond the $1,250 rate, or pay beyond the rate, we have run up a deficit that will reach $110,000 with our January 1983 billing.

Anticipating Board action at our next meeting on February 9, 1983, your next billing will be adjusted to reflect the latest rate of $2,400 per million gallons. The difference between the present billing rate of $1,250 and the new rate of $2,400 will be held in escrow pending the circuit court case initiated by Huron Township in early 1981 against the Wayne County Department of Public Works.

Presently, charges are predicated on the cost of running the disposal plant that services a given area. Contractually Wayne County Department of Public Works has the right to do this. Our lawsuit asks that the formula be changed so all Wayne Communities pay the same rate. A rate less than $700 per million gallons.

"We are sorry to find this letter necessary and that the sewage rate will be increased, but we strongly believe it is the only prudent action you would want your Board to follow," the letter concluded.

Sullivan presents tax reform

Saying a total restructuring of Michigan's tax system is needed, Representative Richard Sullivan (D-New Boston) is drafting legislation to temporarily stop the constant escalation of property taxes.

The Sullivan proposal will impose a three-year freeze on state equalized property valuations.

Sullivan says the main purpose of the bill is to provide tax relief for property owners by rolling back state equalized values to 1981 levels, and at the same time give lawmakers a chance to restructure the tax system.

"The current tax system is constantly fluctuating since it's based on the sale of properties in each community," said Sullivan, "and that formula has not only created an unstable tax system but has placed an unfair burden on taxpayers."

According to Sullivan, the proposed legislation would not hurt the state in any way.

"If property taxes were stabilized, the state would not realize any loss of revenue since all property taxes go to the localities and not to the state."

Sullivan admits that communities and school systems may feel the effects of a property tax freeze initially, but believes revenue losses could be made up from money the state would save under its property tax rebate (circuit breaker)

"A freeze on assessments would mean a freeze on the growth of circuit breaker payments to homeowners and renters. The state would be refunding less tax monies and that savings to the state would then be forwarded to schools and localities under revenue sharing programs.

"I believe the people of Michigan, have been taxed unfairly long enough, and by revamping the property tax system, lawmakers can provide a measure of tax relief to the people and a certain stability to levied taxes," Sullivan added.

"With an expected upturn in the economy, the release of pent up demand for homes and property will certainly reflect a selling price increase of all property in the affected areas. The resultant increase in taxes through the application of the state equalization formula would be unfair and cause undue hardship on property owners," Sullivan concluded.

Local firm gets contract

A large business in Romulus is benefiting from defense contracts awarded by the Defense Construction Supply Center (DCSC) of Columbus, Ohio.

The Center announced today the award of a contract for $389,027 to General Motors Corporation, 36501 Van Born Road, which will produce power take-off clutches, oil cooler front covers, cylinder parts kits, ring sets, crankshafts and fuel pump drive hub-gear for use by the U.S. military services.

A field installation of the Defense Logistics Agency in Washington, D.C., DCSC buys and manages vehicular repair parts and construction equipment and material used in common by the Army, Navy, Air Force and Marine Corps.

New park facilities to open this spring

Canton residents will have more recreational opportunities this summer when new facilities are unveiled at Flodin Park and the Canton Recreation Complex.

According to Mike Gouin, director of parks and recreation, the expanded facilities will mean additional programs and activities for individuals as well as organized athletic leagues. Both parks should be officially opened by late spring or early summer, he said.

Two new softball diamonds and six soccer fields will be opened at the Recreation Complex, which is located on a 50-acre site behind the Township Administration Building.

Philip LaJoy, president of the Canton Soccer Club, said the group is organizing an international soccer tournament for Memorial Day weekend to help dedicate the Recreation Complex's soccer fields.

Several dozen soccer teams from Canada, Ohio, Oklahoma, Texas and other states have shown an interest in competing in the tourney, LaJoy said.

Formed in 1978, the soccer club now boasts more than 1,350 members and 90 teams, LaJoy said. He added that the club members are looking forward to playing on the new fields since they have not always had access to good playing surfaces in the past.

Because of the two new softball diamonds, Gouin said, the township's softball program will be greatly expanded. A co-ed league an over-35 league are on tap, he said, and he hopes to establish a church division.

"We'll have more capacity for our regular leagues, too," Gouin said. "We've had to turn down players in the past because we didn't have space for them, but I hope no one gets turned away this year."

When the complex is fully developed it will feature two more softball diamonds, four more soccer/football fields, four tennis courts and a swimming pool.

Will area receive fair share of Revenue Sharing Funds

Wayne County Commission Chairman Willima G. Suzore was among 1400 other county representatives from across the country who converged on Washington, D.C. earlier this week to assure that their respective counties received a fair portion of some $4.56 billion in General Revenue Sharing funds.

Suzore said Wayne County is expecting $14 million.

Attending with Suzore were Commissioners Kay Beard, Mary E. Dumas, Samuel A. Turner and Richard E. Manning. All are members of various National Association of Counties (NACo) Steering Committees that set national policy.

According to Suzore, the local contingent was also updated on progress by Congress for insuring that Social Security would remain solvent. "This is very important to our senior citizens," Suzore commented, "and it appears our representatives in Washington are making headway in maintaining proper funding for the program."

The congregation heard Senate Finance Committee Chairman Bob Dole (R-Kan.) call the General Revenue Sharing (GRS) program "about the safest thing I know in town."

Addressing the opening general session of NACo's largest Legislative Conference ever, Dole told county officials that he thinks the federal government "has a responsibility to do something beyond extending unemployment benefits" for more than 11 million Americans who are unemployed. Dole said he was especially concerned about providing health benefits for the unemployed and in getting coverage for less federal money in any short-term jobs program.

"One way to do that," Dole said, "would be to get the money to local governments as quickly and efficiently as possible."

Suzore said the administration apparently sent a bill to Congress February 25 that proposes to merge GRS and Community Development Block Grant funds allocating money for five years at fiscal 1984 levels.

"Losing GRS funding would cause a considerable hardship for Wayne County," Suzore explained. "We very nearly lost the funding the past few years when the state failed to audit the books of Michigan counties — one of the requirements of the programs. At the last minute, the feds agreed to allow Michigan counties to hire outside auditing firms in order to qualify. Hopefully, this won't happen again."

County representatives were also apprised of the new Job Training Partnership Act that replaces the former CETA program. The law brings the private sector into partnership with counties and cities and gives states a bigger role than in the past.

Welcome, aboard

Wayne County Sheriff Loren M. Pittman (at right) will have a new administrative assistant in Emmett Grier, Jr. who was promoted to handle a wide range of assignments including training programs, coordination of civil defense plans and preparation of federal grant applications. The 39-year-old Grier is a Howard University (Washington D.C.) grad and he and his wife have two children and reside in Romulus.

Here's a contest students enjoyed

McDonald's of Romulus, 9777 S. Wayne Rd., and Romulus High School held a Hamburger Enjoyment Contest the month of February.

And the local schools were the winners.

The Hamburger Enjoyment Contest is designed to give financial support to the student body of a high school in the trading area of the sponsoring McDonald's restaurant.

McDonald's of Romulus donated $500 to Romulus High Schools Hamburger Enjoyment Contest.

The objective of the contest was to score more points than the opposing class team in a 30-calendar-day period based on food purchased at McDonald's.

A tally board was kept at McDonald's of Romulus and Romulus High School, keeping the current score of the classes for all to see.

The Romulus High School's first place team was the Freshmen, Class of 1986 winning $175

That's a real treat!

cash prize; second place was the Class of 1985 winning $100, third place was the Class of 1984 winning $75, while fourth place was the Class of 1983 winning $50.

The prize monies are to be used for any school purpose with the approval of the class faculty sponsor and principal. McDonald's of Romulus' Hamburger Enjoyment Contest was a delicious way for Romulus High School to show their school spirit and help their class to win cash for special projects.

To provide 5,000 jobs

County approves contracts for 'Super Sewer'

In a move eventually providing 5000 additional construction jobs in Wayne County, last week the County Commission approved "Super Sewer" contracts with 17 out-county communities, that have pledged $74 million as their collective local share in a $284 million project otherwise funded by the federal government.

With the Commission's approval, according to Acting Public Works Director Duane R. Egeland, work on the project will begin this fall and proceed in four phases through 1985. The task involves building a 10-foot diameter sewer and interceptors along 60 miles of the Wayne-Oakland County border.

Nicknamed the Super Sewer but formally designated the Huron Valley Wastewater Control System, the project will provide the 5000 jobs for five years and conditions of its construction require use of materials and equipment purchased from local vendors when possible. This means even more business and more jobs, said William G. Suzore, Chairman of the County Commission.

On other matters discussed at their meeting on March 3, the Commission is continuing attempts to resolve what some consider are contradictions in the new County charter.

The commissioners confirmed appointments of delegates to the Southeast Council of Governments recommended by County Executive William Lucas, but several challenged his authority to appoint members of the County Drainage Board, Areawide Water Quality Board and the Solid Waste Planning Committee.

Because of the dispute, Suzore has scheduled a special meeting of the full Commission for March 10 to determine procedures for reaching a final decision on whether the County Executive or the Commission is the legal appointing authority. Some on the Commission feel that the issue can only be settled by court decision and means to get a declaratory judgment from the courts is being considered.

Last week, three separate motions to seek a declaratory judgment were defeated because they failed to receive eight votes, the majority of votes of the 15 commissioners serving. Each motion, however, did receive seven votes.

'Lots of love'

"Lots of Love" went into the creation of this 3 feet by 5 feet wall hanging which adds a homey touch to the parents' room in Oakwood Hospital's Neonatal Intensive Care Unit (NICU). Created by 27 of the nurses in the unit through the support of the Oakwood Activities Association, the quilt took around a month to complete.

Romulus, Belleville churches to stage 'Walk-Jog-A-Thon'

A local planning group representing churches from Romulus and Belleville has announced a 10-mile Walk/Jog-A-Thon between the two communities. The event is scheduled for 1:15 on May 15.

The Romulus Help Center and the Belleville First United Methodist Church Food Closet were recipients of some of these funds. Audrey McKee of the Belleville First United Methodist Church Food Closet

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

By John Brimble

What's better than crackers with soup? Toasted pita bread! Cut large pita circles into quarters, and split. Brush crusts with oil, sprinkle with sesame or caraway seeds if you like. Bake at 325° for 20 minutes.

Cooking beans? Discard the soaking water and add fresh liquid to cook.

Young, tender vegetables taste best steamed. Older, tougher ones may need to be cooked in water.

If a recipe calls for 1 cup of fine crumbs, you'll need 28 soda crackers, 15 graham crackers, 19 chocolate wafers, or 22 vanilla wafers.

Breakfast idea: fresh popcorn, with sugar and cream. They ate it that way at Plymouth Colony, Massachusetts.

Dinner idea: bring the family to Capt. Nemo's Submarine Sandwiches

We've got so many of your favorites on our menu.

Kaniskis observe golden wedding day

MR. AND MRS. STEPHEN KANISKI

A surprise party, given by their sons, Robert and William and their families, honored Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Kaniski of Belleville on their 50th wedding anniversary.

The couple, residents of the area for some 46 years, reside at 50 Potter Drive and are members of St. Anthony's Catholic Church. Mr. Kaniski, a retiree of the Ford Motor Company's Livonia Plant, and his wife, a former receptionist at Beyer Hospital, enjoy fishing and gardening in their spare time.

Mrs. Kaniski was Mary Kostack of Toronto, Ont. when she first spoke her nuptial vows at St. Jerome's Church in Detroit on Jan. 28, 1933. Besides their two sons, Robert of Santa Ana, Calif. and William of Ann Arbor, they have six grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

The party, held at William's home on Jan. 29, was attended by guests from Toronto, San Carlos, Calif., Ann Arbor, Troy, Pleasant Ridge and Belleville.

On Jan. 30 the golden jubilarians repeated their nuptial vows at a 12 noon ceremony conducted by The Rev. David Lis at St. Anthony's Church. A reception followed in the banquet room of the Tin Lizzie Restaurant in Belleville.

Harmony Cake

To create a dessert from familiar staples, look to your kitchen cupboard for inspiration. Take a package of Jell-O lemon flavor instant pudding and pie filling and a yellow cake mix, and you have the basic ingredients for this delicious Harmony Cake.

If you have not yet tried a pudding cake, you will discover how the addition of pudding to cake mix results in a creamy, moist cake that will stay fresh for several days. Next, add the crunchy nut-like cereal nuggets, which will give the cake its special texture. Orange juice provides a delicate flavor, and with all of these ingredients blending so well, you will enjoy a cake that is as easy to eat as it is to make.

Harmony Cake

- 1 orange
 - 1 cup crunchy nutlike cereal nuggets
 - 1 package (2-layer size) yellow cake mix
 - 1 package (4-serving size) lemon flavor instant pudding and pie filling
 - 4 eggs

Moms-to-be 'showered'

Mrs. James Pollard was hostess at a double stork shower honoring her two daughters-in-law, Dawn Lyn Pollard and Dawn Elizabeth Pollard, on Sunday, Feb. 27.

Held in the Fellowship Hall of the First United Methodist Church, the party included some 50 relatives and friends who enjoyed an afternoon "songfest" of baby-theme songs in lieu of the usual games.

A resume on the lives of the two mothers-to-be was given and special telegrams of congratulations were written by each one present.

They were put aside to be sent to the new parents on the births of their first babies.

A buffet dinner at four o'clock was capped by two cakes decorated in yellow and blue. Since it was the hostess' daughter, Collette's birthday as well, refreshments also included a cake in her honor.

Each guest received mementoes of silk roses to take home as well as a small baby doll fashioned from a white handkerchief. Gifts for the two expected heirs were opened during the festivities.

Quotes worth quoting . . .

potpourri

By Lee Smith
Suburban Living Editor

The very best part of returning from our winter (what winter?) vacation this year was being able to return. The past two attempts ('81 and '82) to "get home" were thwarted both times by ice and fog, a snowstorm and socked-in airport.

To wing your way homeward amid calm skies and to actually have an unobscured view of Cleveland, Lake Erie, the Detroit River, Pointe Pelee, Grosse Isle, the Downriver area, Detroit itself and then an unblanketed landing field is treat enough. But to disembark and find springtime in February is absolutely heavenly!

All that plus having two smiling faces — just for us — waiting to greet us and drive us home sorta compensated for the luggage which didn't get transferred with us in Orlando and the exasperating pokiness of the airlines. Not a single flite or connection left or arrived on time.

Ah, well — if the Bureaucracy would only get off its apathetic behind and revitalize the rail system!

It was nice getting back to work, too, (I really do like this job) and finding a welcome-back note from my office pals who were taking credit for cranking up that solar disc and all the warmth it was dispensing.

There wasn't going to be a "potpourri" this week since along with the other mementoes of our trip, I brought back a wing-ding of a Bahamian cold and was feeling r-o-t-t-e-n and couldn't seem to think or concentrate too well. Plus at dinner one evening, a fish bone'd caught a molar "just right" and caused me to see Dr. Miller much sooner than I'd planned. The novocaine didn't help the thinking process (and that was going to be part of my excuse for a columnless week.)

This morning fortunately, finds me just a bit livelier and a delicious juicy orange and pair of aspirin seem to be helping — so — here 'tis.

Along with all the other pleasantries of getting-back-to-work was a fan letter! This one said all the right things, an absolute picker-upper for a bleary-eyed, stuffed up writer and I want to thank Beatrice Wilson for her flattering remarks and interesting suggestions. You didn't give an address, Beatrice, so I can't send you the recipe you requested. It was run in "potpourri" twice so if you'll call or write me, I'll send it out.

We also have our letter writer to thank for the following recipe which, she says, is very good.

SCALLOPED TOMATOES

- 1 large can tomatoes
- 1 tablespoon sugar
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon dry mustard
- ½ cup chopped onion
- ½ cup chopped green pepper
- 1 cup thinly sliced celery
- 2 tablespoons melted oleo
- 2 tablespoons flour mixed with some of the tomato juice
- 3 slices bread, cubed and toasted

Mix ingredients in order given. Bake in greased casserole for 30 to 40 minutes at 350 degrees. Cheese lovers might like to fold in 1 cup cubed cheese just before baking or spread about ½ cup grated cheese atop the casserole during the last 10-15 minutes of baking.

Mr. Berg's stadium, an impossible dream

Unfortunately some men of dreams and vision must wake up to the fact of fiscal reality.

And Bart Berg, who has served this area in many capacities as well as a delegate to the Wayne County Charter Commission, saw his dreams for a multipurpose stadium in Canton Township shatter last week when the township board put the plan in a "holding pattern".

What the veteran community activist had proposed was the construction of a stadium that would seat from 3,000 to 10,000 fans who would watch such programs as rodeos, demolition derbies and country music concerts.

Not a bad plan, one would say, especially when one considers that a fan usually has to head for the Pontiac Silverdome or to the State Fairgrounds in order to view rodeos, and we all know what one can expect when we cross 8-Mile Road without a passport.

Mr. Berg's stadium appeared to be a reasonable request because it would generate the funds to keep it self-sustaining. The variety of programs, he assures, would be money-makers put on by private entrepreneurs.

But the township officials saw the fragility of the plan. A feasibility report overwhelmingly persuaded the trustees to shelve the idea, for now.

Michael Gouin, Parks and Recreation Director, pointed out that the stadium would need at least $20,000 to get off the ground and that it would take at least two to three months to construct.

Mr. Gouin offered some other thoughts for Board consideration. He said that a complete feasibility study on a stadium would cost approximately $20,000, and a market analysis on the stadium's potential would mean the township may have to fork out another $5,000. Then, of course, the proposed stadium would have to compete with the likes of Pontiac Stadium and the State Fairgrounds.

He concluded that "if we do build a stadium, we've got to do it right."

We believe that Mr. Berg's dream is a "beautiful one", however, we also believe that it is one of those "impossible dreams", for the present.

Growing up... those very hectic years

They say children will be children, and, in many ways we will have to agree. When we attempt to treat them like grown ups, they retaliate; when we treat them as kids they say they are not. It seems we can never win.

And those of us who have been fortunate to survive those hectic years realize now how hectic they were. Most of us were fortunate that we did have parents to guide us over the rough spots, even if it did take a swat or two on the behind.

Of course, child psychologists tell us we can't use the rod anymore because if we do, it only goes to prove that the child was spoiled.

Beatings, of course, can lead to severe consequences. Like being accused of child abuse. However, all one has to do is to talk to police officers and police chiefs and you'll learn most of the vandalism, most of the break-ins and a lot of the armed robberies today are being committed by teens who, ironically, don't come from poverty-stricken families.

It may be useful to note that the terrible price we pay when schools have to cut back on those so-called extracurricular activities such as sports, arts, music usually gives youth the extra time to get into trouble.

We know that the taxpayers are sick of digging into their pockets for additional tax monies to support the schools, but an investment in the youth of today pays off, we believe, in future dividends in the form of better citizens.

High school athletics are endangered species

Dear Reader — the "Obituary" you will find following this brief note may and can happen in any school district in the area, county or state.

The obituary may be premature. However, the Belleville High School Athletic Program is in serious trouble as are many others. You and I may wake up some Wednesday morning to read in your paper of the demise of the once proud Belleville Tigers. The Romulus Eagles. The Wayne Zebras. The Glenn Rockets — high school athletics are an endangered species.

For example, in 1981 the Van Buren School Board decided to drop funding for all extra-curricular activities, including the athletic program. At that time a small group of parents, loosely organized as the Belleville Tiger Booster Club, came forward with a proposal to attempt to raise the necessary funds required to operate the Athletic Programs.

Every effort was made to accomplish this. However, the group came up some $33,000 short of covering the expenditures.

This could have been the end of the sports program. However, the School Board once again allowed the Booster Club another year to put the program together.

We are currently in that extra year, and the Booster Club is struggling to raise $124,000 for the current year's estimated expenses. As the pages of the calendar turn, it becomes less likely that the total $124,000 is going to be raised.

If the Booster Club falls short of this mark this year, the likelihood of the School Board agreeing to let the Program run another year diminishes with each budget cut by Governor James Blanchard and the lack of support for additional mileage.

I believe that one of the primary reasons we are not getting the necessary support from the community is its lack of awareness. We have had an extremely hard time even getting the students and their parents to comprehend how serious the situation is becoming. Almost everyone who has had the opportunity to find out what we are up against helps in one way or another, even people without athletes, or even students, in the schools.

I'm pretty sure that, by now, you know what I'm driving at with this letter. We need your help to make an all-out effort to let the community know just what our situation really is, and what we need to get accomplished.

I know this is asking a lot, but we need help. It may still be possible to save our sports programs. I hope that you would find it preferable to help now, while the programs are still alive. Success stories are much more enjoyable to write than obituaries.

OBITUARY

NAME: Belleville Athletic Programs (Belleville Sports)
DATE OF BIRTH: Unknown
DIED: June 30, 1983

Survivors of the deceased report that Belleville Sports died a hard death. He struggled for over two long years to fight off the illness caused by apathy and lack of funds.

Close friends of Belleville Sports had to resort to begging, borrowing, or stealing to keep Sports alive, but it was all to no avail. If Sports could have hung on just a little longer, perhaps another solution could have been found, but, sadly, it is too late now.

Belleville Sports has served the school and community well over the years. Many people have been able to move on to higher educational experiences because of him. Many more have had the qualities of teamwork, discipline, and school spirit instilled in them for a lifetime.

Many kids who may have left school before completing their high school education stayed because of Belleville Sports.

It is hard to define exactly what qualities made Belleville Sports so important to the school community, but we do know that it will never be the same without him.

So, farewell, Belleville Sports, it was nice knowing you, but like a lot of other worthwhile things, you will only be a memory now.

Our tax junkies in Lansing

Tom Mooradian
Managing Editor

Governor James Blanchard called the 59 members of the House of Representatives — all of whom happen to be Democrats — who supported his call for a "temporary state tax increase".... "Courageous."

I hope the Senate has the sense to shelve that temporary tax permanently.

If the Senate should agree to what their colleagues over in the House did the other day, you can expect to pay 6.35 percent (from 4.6 percent) in state taxes, and that's retroactive to January 1. That's a 38 percent tax hike.

BLANCHARD

If the so-called temporary taxes are shoved down our throats, Michigan will have the dubious honor of paying the highest state tax in the United States.

The tax junkies in Lansing apparently believe the taxpayers have their own printing presses and can print all the money they want.

Why is it that as soon as the Board of Canvassers certifies an election, the elected officials begin their rape of the taxpayers?

The state, they argue is broke. And how did it get there?

If we have continuously raised taxes over the past two decades and have not solved our fiscal problems, what assurances do we have that the 38 percent hike will do it now?

There are none.

So then, may we expect another temporary 38 percent tax increase upon this one?

If the state is broke, why did the state legislators accept their recent across-the-board pay hikes?

Why can industry and business ask — no, demand — across-the-board pay and benefit concessions from employees and workers, while they and the legislators slither through this depression untouched and unfazed?

The repertoire is like a horror movie which keeps us at the edge, nervously wondering when it will be our turn to cash in the proverbial chips.

We don't mind the role-playing, but when we elected a governor we hoped that he would come up with some solutions for the trauma. It doesn't take a genius to pull a gun and place it to the temple of a taxpayer and demand: "Give me more or else!"

Some of those taxpayers we have heard from are urging the alternative. Pull the trigger, governor.

When the battle for the newest tax begins in the Senate we hope that there will be some "cowards" on the floor who will categorically vote against the increase.

Michigan doesn't need new taxes. It can't pay the old ones.

And may we suggest to those who represent us in the House: Mr. Richard Sullivan, Mr. Edward Mahalak, Mr. Bill Keith, and Mrs. Justine Barns, who supported the tax increase, that they really blew this one.

May we remind them that they also have a large contingency of the unemployed.

May we also remind them that just because a governor is a Democrat, and they are also Democrats, one could be "courageous" by telling him it is wrong at this time to ask the citizens for more of something they don't have.

And let us applaud Rep. Gerald Law for telling the Governor just what he thinks about that so-called temporary tax.

Believe me, dear elected official, you may be in Lansing, but you're not far from our hearts. And two years slip by very quickly.

Separation of church, state

EDITOR — Excuse me if I say I'm a bit confused about this situation in all of the newspapers and on TV over the recent weeks about this Roman Catholic nun and politics and abortion.

Archbishop Szoka is demanding her resignation from public office because of her support of Medicaid funding for abortions. What I believe myself, about this matter is of no consequence, but I must say that I do not think men and women who hold high and important positions in the church should go into politics.

Surely their duties are enough to keep them busy in and around the church.

Surely we need Christian or religious people in government, today as never before, but there are many who could fill these positions.

The thing I can't really understand is why an Archbishop of any church has the right to tell anyone how they must think, and of course, when it comes to politics — just where is the separation of church and state?

A belated 'thank you'

EDITOR — This letter is written with warmest regards to all of those persons who made this a most memorable holiday season. Your compassionate and benevolent acts of giving during the Thanksgiving and Christmas Seasons were more generous than any that I have witnessed in my 8 years as school social worker for the Inkster Public Schools.

Your charitable concern was phenomenal. I was truly overwhelmed with joy and thankfulness, and the families who received your kindness were very grateful and happy.

There were 60 families in Inkster, 5 families in Westland and 1 family in Romulus that had happier holidays because of your generosity. Over 70% of these families had one to two handicapped children living within the home.

To be quite honest, I was not expecting much aid for these families this school year because of our gloomy economic conditions and so many workers on indefinite lay-off. Frankly, I had become a little disgruntled over the seemingly bleak prospects for the future. Your genuine concern has reminded me that we have been endowed with a special unity that does not allow us to ignore the needs of others. We are willing to share what we have with those less fortunate.

On behalf of all of the recipients of Thanksgiving and Christmas baskets for the 1982/83 school year, our sincerest appreciation to the following: Family and Neighborhood Services, Springhill Baptist Church, The Ford Motor Co. Employees Christmas Fund, Meek Elementary School, Smith Chapel C.M.E. Church, Inkster Federation of Teachers, Redeemed Christian Fellowship Center, Madonna College, Westwood School District and Inkster High School Student Body.

Inkster High School's Leadership Seminar, Middlebelt Baptist Church, Miesel/Sysco Food Services, Inkster High School's Youth Club The Essence, Inkster High School's 3rd Hour Social Studies Class, Inkster High School's 2nd Hour General Business Class, Omega Phi Teens, Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity-Ann Arbor Chapter, Peppermints, the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority's Youth Group - Inkster Chapter, Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc., Inkster Alumni Chapter, Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., Inkster Alumni Chapter, Inkster High School's Staff Advisors and Co-ordinators and Inkster Public Schools & Milton School Food Service Programs.

To all of these wonderful organizations and people who worked so hard, thank you for caring and sharing.

Deputies agree on tax increase

EDITOR — Local 502, S.E.I.U., AFL-CIO, Wayne County Deputy Sheriff's Union concurs with Governor James J. Blanchard's assessment of a tax increase to aid our State's economic recovery.

One must recognize his courage and congratulate him on taking a stand for a tax increase during these tough economic times. Further, we are confident that our State Legislatures will find a means for an equitable tax increase.

Smith's appreciate ANP's help

EDITOR — We would like to thank the Associated Newspaper and the public for helping us find our daughter.

If it wasn't for the local newspapers' help, I'm sure we would still be looking for her. We both thank you from the bottom of our hearts.

She has a 'tip' for Mr. Muer

EDITOR — I would like to say, "No, Mr. Muer".

In response to the Associated Newspapers' article of Feb. 24, I would like to "thank you", Mr. Muer, for letting me know why we won't be trying your new restaurant.

As a waitress for many years, I would like to speak out on your "no tipping code".

You don't tell a customer they have to pay to eat at your restaurant. Tipping is something that is up to the individual. It is up to you to pay a good cook a decent wage.

You are asking the waitress to pay your employees wages.

A waitress is paid minimum wages and then tips taxed out of that. The government wants eight percent and now you want her to split her tips with your busboy, your dishwasher, and your cook.

A waitress is tipped according to the service a customer receives. She must be patient, have a good personality, and above all let the customer know they're Number one.

When a tip is left on the table, whether it be 5, 10, or even 15 percent, it was left for services rendered. When I go to a restaurant I tip according to the service I received.

I will not be told how much I have to pay to eat in your or any other restaurant. I will take my family to a restaurant that welcomes my business and leaves the tipping to me.

Sr. Mansour is opposing canon

EDITOR — In response to Mona Grigg's column which appeared on Wed., March 3-4, in The Associated Newspapers' Opinion Page, concerning the appointment of Sr. Mansour as head of the Department of Social Services, it is apparent that Ms. Grigg knows little or nothing of the Catholic Church's Canon Law.

Canon law states that a procurer of abortion is automatically excommunicated from the church.

A procurator (as defined by Webster) is one that manages another's affairs.

Archbishop Szoka is simply following the laws of the church that he committed his life to.

There is no doubt as to Sr. Mansour's ability, dedication or her qualifications. That's not the real issue.

May I remind Ms. Grigg that when the original proposal regarding the legalization of abortion was put to a vote, it was soundly defeated by the people of Michigan. The issue later was overturned by the legislators (composed solely of men at that time). Democracy?

If the Archbishop is getting "wrenching pressure" from the right to lifers, I hope he continues to do so. As for the Pro-Choice groups, why not "Pro-Responsibility"?

I am sick to death of hearing that a woman has the right to do whatever she wants with her body. It's not that I don't agree, it's just that once she becomes impregnated, it is no longer just her body.

If a woman is truly concerned with her body, then she learns to protect it from the unwanted, whether it be Herpes or a pregnancy. If she is unwilling to use preventative measures, then she has the "right" to insist that her partner do so. That is simply an act of taking responsibility for one's actions. If all else fails, a simple "no thanks" will do.

Women who use abortion to rid the unwanted are simply "cop-outs" whether rich or poor.

If Sr. Mansour wants to help the poor, then why not follow Nobel Prize Winner, Sr. Theresa's example? She is one woman along, who has touched the lives of many of the world's poor, without going against the teachings of her church.

Leave the job of dishing out tax dollars (over 5 million in 1981) for abortions to someone who obviously has little respect for life and women.

A question

EDITOR — On the front page of the Associated Newspapers' Westland Eagle edition you carried a small story called: "Veteran's Resolution Sparks War of Words".

Shame on you! You missed something special within your community. That was; after years of being blamed for our involvement in Vietnam, which was the worst crime of all, our school board, upon request, took a great step forward to undo this wrong.

This should have been a major story for all in our community; the men who served and the people who live within our community, but for you it was not.

The only thing you saw fit to print was a very small, negative part of the event of that night. Are you incapable of healing the wounds that people at home inflicted on those men who served? I hope not.

But by your lack of reporting the true event, I wonder.

Now we will have to wait and see what you do in this week's paper on what Westland did, as a city, for our Vietnam veterans last Wednesday.

Two giant strides in one week, to help undo a grave injustice done to our men over all these years seems to be of little importance to you. Or maybe you need a certain name before you will give it the coverage that it deserves. I hope not, for the good that was meant.

James R. Davis

Local painter should get credit

EDITOR — I feel that the Associated Newspapers missed a tremendous story the other day about a local painter who is doing everything to brighten up Westland.

This man's name is Ron Smith, who has a mural on an ice cream establishment.

Last summer my family and friends watched the progress of the delicious looking delights on the wall of the ice cream establishment at Howe and Annapolis roads.

Fallen Eagles

Fine young warriors with wings of silver and hearts of gold,

*When you walked this earth you were more than mortal you were strength, you were courage, and yes, a little bold;
but now where you rest, it's awfully cold.*

*You fought for an idea in a far off land.
Before your quest, who'd heard of Viet-nam?*

In places you couldn't pronounce they sent you to die in the land of the free, only your loved ones will cry.

They build you a "V" as black as the night, they say the war is over, the one we still fight.

*After all these years, they say "Welcome Home";
lay down rover, and chew on this bone.*

They have treated you right, their conscience is clear, you shed all your blood, and they not a tear.

*I promise my brothers, as long as I draw breath, they will remember your courage and,
honor your death.*

reflections

In the foothills of heaven

Hemet, Calif. — Here I am back again in these 'foothills of heaven', sitting on the patio with Mt. San Jacinto towering above me, the palm trees reaching to the blue of the skies, and somehow, I feel I have come home.

How I love this desert paradise.

This year I brought my husband with me. He was eager to come, for many years ago, when we were young and newly married, he had been stationed at March Field in Riverside, just a hop, skip and jump from this little valley tucked between the rolling hills.

Those many years ago he had flown over these mountains, and had seen the beauty of the skies, but I don't think he really paid much attention to the paradise the sky covered.

The morning after we arrived, I dragged out his Adidas and begged him to go for a walk with me.

"I don't see any fairways, or putting greens," he said. "You know I only walk on golf courses."

"But you want to see everything before we find a golf course for you," I begged. "You will want to see the mountains and the sun coming over the mountains, and the tumbleweeds rolling towards you, and the olive groves and the orange groves . . . you will want to see everything!"

"What I want to see is a little flag waving me on, letting me know where the hole is," he answered. But I shoved the Adidas onto his feet and I pulled him from the house.

"There's no sidewalks," he cried.

"We don't need sidewalks," I said as I propelled him toward the street. "Look up . . . look at Mt. San Jacinto . . . isn't it beautiful?"

"I don't like to walk without sidewalks," he retorted.

"Honey, look, look, the sun is coming over the mountain. Look at the snow on its peak glistening . . ."

"Watch out," he shouted.

"Don't step in that dog s . . .!"

"Look over there at that olive grove. Don't you love olive trees?"

"What are they doing with a horse in their backyard, right in town?" he asked.

On we walked, but he didn't see a thing except stones under his feet, and smashed olives. And then a miracle happened. Right before us was a sign, "Echo Hills Golf Course." He ran forward, like a man lost on the desert, in shimmering heat, runs towards a mirage of water and green stuff. He fell to his knees on the tee, shaded his eyes and scanned the horizon.

"It's there," he cried. "The little flag in the hole on the green. See it, see it . . ." And he bowed his head to the earth and gave thanks.

I left him there and a few hours later took his clubs to him. I could see him way off in the distance making obeisance to the greens, with the little flags waving under the palm trees. I dropped the clubs on the first tee, knowing he would find them, in the same way a mouse finds the cheese in a trap.

We have a few more weeks in this paradise. I'll probably see him sometime in the morning just before we leave.

And I'll probably weep a little bit as we drive through the mountain on the way to the airport. And I'll weep a little when I look down from the skies on the 'foothills of heaven' and say goodbye.

But the tanned fellow sitting beside me, with his golf-cap on his head and his golf club clutched in his hands, will be grinning happily . . . because he will know that springtime has come to Michigan, and the little flags will be waving in their little holes on the greens of many golf courses.

funded in part by me, anyway.

I mean, I figure that besides paying for outrageously expensive Algerian gas, when I pay my bill I'm helping to pay employee salaries, as well as adding a little extra to the pot. The same pot, I assume, from whence the matching funds will come.

I don't mind that. I'm just not marking "X's" in little boxes — I'm not adding even one little bit to that already horrendous gas bill. And at the same time, I'm not doing one little bit to enhance the public image of the company responsible for that horrendous gas bill.

And when I want to do my bit for the Salvation Army, I'll send my contribution to 601 Bagley Avenue, Detroit, 48226, direct.

mona grigg

Whose dollar is it, anyway?

When I got my gas bill this month, two things were different: One, I received a credit — an actual credit — for $25. And two, I was given the opportunity to mark an "X" in a box, thereby pledging a dollar to the Salvation Army.

I almost marked the "X" in the box. I think the world of the Salvation Army, and I thought-just this once-I was going to think the world of my gas company.

I thought my gas company was going to divert a dollar of the money I owed them into a fund for the Salvation Army.

I thought it was going to be like the box on my income tax return where, if I mark an "X", a dollar or two goes into a general campaign fund. When I mark the "X" on my income tax return, nothing about my return changes. I don't get one or two dollars less for marking it. I am simply indicating, by marking the "X", that I agree that a couple of my former dollars, which the IRS now has anyway, should be diverted into the campaign fund.

That's what I thought my gas company was doing. I was actually proud of them for a change. Then I read the fine print.

Turns out what they're really proposing to do is to bill me for the dollar I would pledge on my next gas bill. They say as much in a separate enclosure with a big red heart on it: "Send no money — we'll add your one dollar pledge to next month's energy bill."

My gas company did say that they are matching all contributions from their employees — but not the one from me.

Instead, from me, they expect that the dollar they send to the Salvation Army — approved by me but given in the name of the friendly gas company — will be returned forthwith and posthaste in my next gas payment.

Why would I want to do that?

Why would I want to mark an "X" in a box on my gas bill giving the gas company permission to give a dollar — in their name, not mine — to the Salvation Army and then give the gas company the dollar back — in my name, not theirs?

I wouldn't. And I won't. If I want to send money to the Salvation Army (and I do, and I have — and I will), I'll send it along without the middle man, thanks.

The whole thing smacks of somebody's terrific idea for a great public relations scheme. I don't want to be my gas company's PR person. When I get a bill for $150 for a month's worth of gas, forgive me if I don't look kindly on being given the chance to help the purveyors pat themselves on the back.

But I am crazy about the idea that my gas company is willing to match employee donations to the Salvation Army.

And the reason I think it's terrific, beyond the fact that I'm always happy when the Salvation Army benefits, is because both those funds, the employees' and the matching ones, are being

China Star Palace features diversified menu, exotic drinks

By DENNIS NIEMIEC
Feature Editor

Care for a King Volcano and almond chicken for dinner?

These are two of the more popular choices offered at the China Star Palace, 270 S. Wayne Road in Westland. The King Volcano is one of the exotic concoctions of liquors and fruit juices featured while the almond chicken consists of breasts of boneless chicken dipped in egg batter.

Owner Bill Wong's menu highlights the Cantonese style of Chinese cooking but for those who prefer more spices there's the recently added Szechwan selections. Various American favorites also are available.

"We've been very fortunate that business has been holding up well in this economy," admitted Wong, a native of China who boasts some 20 years in the restaurant business. "One of our secrets is the fact that our chefs have all been with us for a long time. We're not changing chefs every few months."

"One of our chefs has been with us since we came here in 1972."

Such familiarity accounts for the China Star Palace's heavy come-back business with diners coming from as far away as Ann Arbor on a regular basis. What's the attraction?

At lunchtime (11 a.m. to 3 p.m.) 12 combination plates offer something for every Chinese taste. Entrees range from egg foo young ($2.75), pork chop suey ($3.15) and chicken subgum ($3.40) to almond chicken ($3.85), pepper steak ($3.85) and sweet and sour shrimp ($4.50). Luncheons include egg roll, fried rice and homemade soup or tomato juice.

American luncheons, served with french fries, roll, tea or coffee, offer chicken salad ($2.90), chopped sirloin ($3), breaded veal cutlet ($3.20) and broiled white fish ($3.75) among others.

For dinner one can order virtually any Chinese delicacy imaginable with Cantonese style meals available in combination plates, family dinners serving up to six persons, seafood, poultry, pork and beef dishes as well as Szechwan choices.

Combination plates range in price from $4.90 to $6.60 and include egg foo young, sweet and sour pork, fried shrimp, barbecue spare ribs and almond chicken. Soup, roll, Chinese tea and dessert are part of the meal.

More than 60 entrees are provided on the Cantonese menu with all the trimmings—shrimp in lobster sauce, Harr Kow, pepper steak, lemon chicken, garlic ribs, pepper chicken, pressed duck, chow mein and beef with broccoli to name but a few.

"There's one thing about Chinese cooking and that's that all ingredients are fresh," said Wong, who handles day-to-day operations along with his wife, Jane. "You cannot prepare Chinese food ahead of time. If the vegetables are reheated or overcooked the customer can tell it's not fresh."

American dinner selections include roast turkey, fried chicken, filet mignon and several seafood entrees. The meals feature homemade soup or tomato juice, salad, french fries, hot roll, Chinese tea or coffee.

China Star Palace has a seating capacity of 250 with three dining areas available. A number of community organizations reserve the 120-seat party room for parties and meetings (call 326-1310 for reservations).

The restaurant is open from 11 a.m. to 11 p.m. Monday through Thursday; from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. Friday and Saturday, and from noon to 10 p.m. Sunday. A full carry-out menu is available.

Worthy of respect

RAMONES
"Subterranean Jungle"
(Sire)

Rodney Dangerfield would like the Ramones a lot. After all, they have one overshadowing thing in common — neither gets any respect.

And, contrary to many unseasoned opinions, the Ramones are worthy of respect. Instead of fulfilling the "Beach Boys of the 80's" prophecy that the critics hung on them, the Ramones have become in recent years a sort of in-joke, almost a parody of themselves. Part of the problem was the radio (who wouldn't play them), and another was the lack of the right producer. Even Phil Spector ruined an album of otherwise good material.

But amazingly, nearly a decade after their first classic LP, the time seems ripe for the band. Not only has radio (and hence, the charts) opened up this past year, but in Ritchie Cordell, the Ramones have chosen what seems to be the perfect producer for themselves. Cordell is best known for his work on Joan Jett's albums, where he created a sound that went straight to No. 1. He may have done it again, but unfortunately, I doubt it. America just isn't ready for the Ramones on "Solid Gold" and "America's Top Ten" with Casey Kasem.

Anyway, on to the record... For me at least, the best part of any Ramones LP tends to be the cover versions — not because the original tunes aren't good, but rather because the choices are seemingly always straight from my all-time top ten! And there's no exception here: The album opens up with a (naturally) slightly speeded-up version of the Music Explosion's classic "Little Bit O' Soul" that was made to be played on a car radio (or cassette) at full volume while cruising with the windows down. Yep, this is music made to be FORCED on the unenlightened if need be!

"Psycho Therapy" and "Somebody Like Me" are typical loud, brash, Romones' songs. In other words, they're great. "My-My Kind Of Girl" is the best slow number that Joey's sung since "I Wanna Be Your Boyfriend" on the band's debut album, and unless I'm mistaken, that's Walter Lure of the Heartbreakers (Johnny Thunders, not Tom Petty) making a guest vocal appearance on "Time Bomb." The Ramones sense of humor, an integral part of their being, is still alive and well, as might be surmised by the song "Everytime I Eat Vegetables It Makes Me Think Of You."

*"She had a very bad affair
With some cat from Hiroshima
She turned into a head of lettuce
She eats Thorazine in her Farina..."*
Eat your heart out, Christopher Cross!

The Ramones, the true pioneers of what used to be called "punk" are still around, still tucking the songs in at well under three minutes, and still not taking themselves too seriously. They were the first real "fun" band of the 70's, and they're still hanging in there. Along with their auspicious debut LP and the masterpiece that is "Rocket To Russia" proudly stands "Subterranean Jungle," the newest chapter in the Ramones legacy.

No doubt about it

Tigers win final 'Sub-8' crown

Belleville made its last Suburban 8 Conference basketball race its best one.

Burying Dearborn 67-48, Coach Tom Niemi's Tigers captured what is the final "Sub-8" cage title. (The league will disband in June and Belleville will join the Wolverine A Conference).

"I felt like my kids played like the champions that they are," said Coach Niemi. "They just weren't going to be denied. And once again as they have done all year, our bench played very well."

Belleville wrapped up the 1982-83 regular season with an over-all 14-5 record and they finished the league with a 5-1 mark. It was the first time since 1958 that the Tigers had won a basketball league championship.

Thursday night Belleville will see action in the second round of Class A District Playoffs in Ypsilanti where Coach Niemi's team will take on the winner of the Temperance Bedford and Monroe game at 8 p.m.

Receiving an excellent all-around performance from Troy Thomas, Belleville immediately took the initiative and worked its way to a 12-7 lead against the Pioneers at Dearborn. Thomas finished the night with 18 points, the game high.

Outscoring Dearborn 18-14 in the second period and 21-18 in the third, Belleville never relinquished its lead.

The only other Tiger to manage to get into double figures was Mike Mellon, who tossed in 13 points.

Niemi said that "Thomas led us to victory, but Mellon, Rodney Palmer and many of the others played exceptionally well in a gym where it's very difficult to play."

Romulus rally fizzles

There was some good news and some bad news for Romulus High case fans.

The bad news — Coach Al Wilkerson's Eagles let Willow Run slip through their clutches 65-55 after Flint Southwestern had beaten them 70-57 last Tuesday.

The good news is that Terry Mulls, the 6-7 freshman who broke his wrist in the first game of the campaign, appears to be 100-percent. Now, if the Eagles got past host, Ypsilanti, Tuesday night, they will advance to Thursday's semifinals and play the 8 p.m. game with (See ROMULUS, Page B-4)

Glenn falls in cage finals

A trip to the land of Maize and Blue turned into blue for the Rockets as they suffered a tough 66-63 loss to Ann Arbor Huron last Friday night. As a result, the Rockets ended their regular season with a 13-7 record.

The game itself saw as many shifts of momentum as the New York Stock Exchange. Both the Rockets and the River Rats had spurts in which they established dominance over the other.

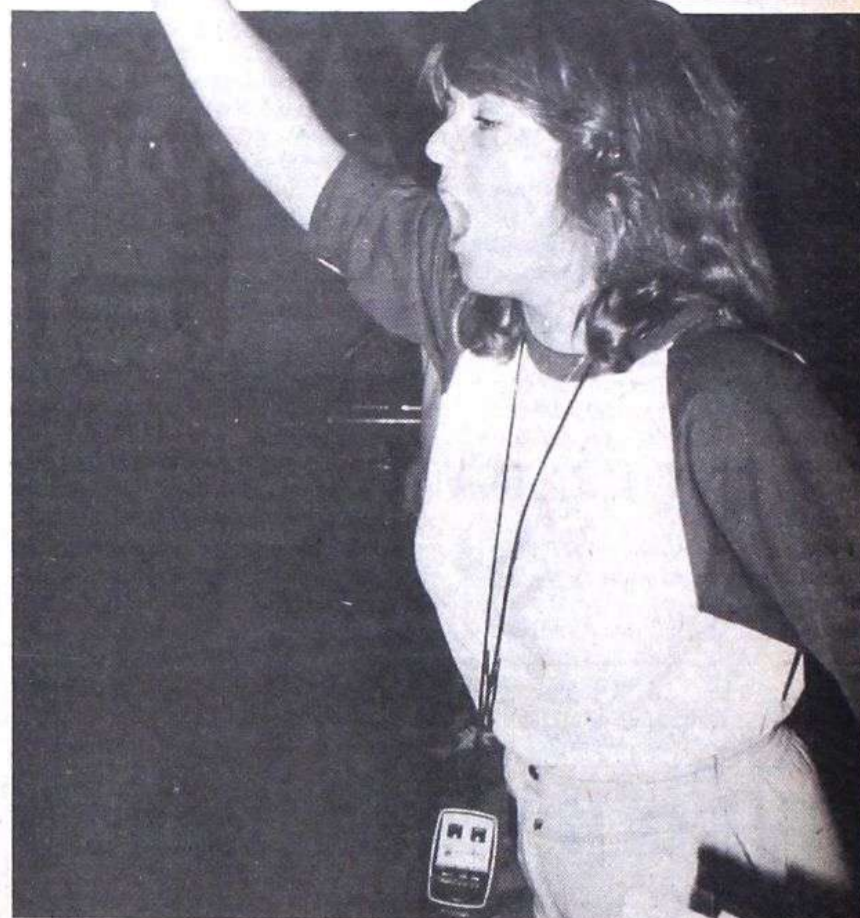

Coach Dan Henry was "pleased with the effort that the kids gave. Huron is a new school on our schedule and it took awhile to get going."

And it did take awhile to get used to the roundhouse effect of the Riverdome which may remind people of the old Garden City West gym. Huron's Scott Schmunk started out like a house-a-fire as he hit four quick points and Marcus Gates added six as the Hurons spurred to a 10-4 lead.

The Rockets finally found their stride before the quarter ended as they closed the gap to 16-12. Junior Jeff Hawley scored two baskets, including a clutch shot with three seconds left.

The second quarter was not an artistic success for either team as they both had trouble putting any consistent attack together. Huron went the coldest, scoring only 7 (See GLENN, Page B-4)

Spartans are perfect

Although she has served as an assistant coach, Debbie Karabees (above) accomplished in her first year as head coach what many coaches believe is an "impossible feat". Coach Karabees' Spartans at Cherry Hill captured all 11 first places at the annual Tri-River Conference championships to become the first team ever to do so. At the left, Spartan co-captains John Sowers and Mark Bahn hold high the championship trophy.

Spartans claim 11 gold medals

History-making Cherry Hill became the first team in Tri-River Conference swimming & diving competitions to capture all 11 events at the championship meet.

Leaving no room for speculation, first year head coach Debbie Karabees and her Spartans garnered a record 447 points en route to (See SPARTANS, Page B-4)

Wayne volleyball champs

Zebras to host regional after district triumph

With each player contributing at the right time, Wayne Memorial retained the Class A District Volleyball title and qualified for the Regional Tournament scheduled to get underway on Saturday.

Wayne carved out two crucial victories over Bishop Borgess 15-1 and 15-12 in the finals of the districts held at Wayne High.

"In the finals Laura (Laura Hayes) hit more than 450 of her shots," said Wayne Coach Doris Busuito, "and also our blocking was superb. Borgess had two big hitters and when we were able to neutralize their strengths, I felt we had them stopped."

Wayne will see action Saturday afternoon when the Zebras will host teams from Trenton, Bedford and Dearborn. In the upper bracket, Wayne is paired against Trenton and Dearborn takes on Bedford. Both games are scheduled at 2 p.m.

The regional championship will be decided at 3:30 p.m.

"I feel we got a good draw," Coach Busuito said. "But, I wish we would get off to a better start than we do. We play much better in the second and third matches than we do in our first."

Wayne had their problems shaking a pesky Livonia Churchill team. After defeating their rivals 15-12 in the first set, the district champ dropped a 15-8 decision to force the issue to a third match which they won by a lopsided 15-4 decision.

"We had a rough time with Churchill," Busuito admitted, "but Paula Cardin came through with her serving and I believe served 13 of the 15 points to spark up the team."

In the quarter-finals of the districts, Westland John Glenn was ousted by Bishop Borgess 15-4; and 15-2, while Livonia Bentley disposed of Redford Union 15-5 and 15-11.

Borgess qualified for the finals by turning back Bentley 10-15, 16-14 and 15-11, while Wayne stunned Stevenson, 15-9 and 15-8 to make it to the championship round.

It was 'week of contrasts!

By JIM WRUBLEWSKI
(ANP Special Writer)

This seems to be a week where there is quite a contrast in the way scores are being posted.

On the one hand, there was a significant drop in the number of high scores turned in and, on the other hand, a good number of people threw 9 or 10 strikes in a row for games in the 270 and 280 range.

An example was M. Hopper, rolling in the Plymouth Elks League, at Superbowl.

Hopper started with a 275 game, then rested (?) with a 207 before he finally decided that throwing strikes were fun and finished with a 276 game and 758 series.

Also at Superbowl, 157 average, Betsy Rosinski, recorded her first 600 series with a nice 638 total and just missed an exceptional triplacate when she had games of 212-212 and 214.

At Town "N" Country Lanes, 170 average Bob Herge had the first nine posted on the score sheet before he left the 4-7 combination in the 10th frame. Bob converted the spare for a 276 game and a 647 series. In the same Jr. House League, Don Dauer had a 259 game and 691 total to move into third place in the Hi Three game category.

Gayle Gipson went 114 pins over her average to roll her best game to date when she hit a 238. John Siebold impressed the Kelsey Hayes Men's League with a 256 game and 650 series during their last session.

Fiesta Lanes was the site of our "strike thrower" of the week, and it was done in grand fashion. Tim DeTherage not only threw 12 in a row for his perfect game, but put together three fine games to just miss the 800 series mark. Tim had games of 300-222-277 for an outstanding 799 series.

Dale Harbour was 127 pins over with a 278 game; Frank Porter was 95 pins over with a 297 game, and, in the process, totaled 675.

Lodge Lanes had both the men and women rolling well with Joe Ducher topping the list with a 286 game. Following close behind was George Finnerin with a 706 series; Phil Roberts had 267 for 683; Virginia Patke hit 259; Kathy Cart was at 256; Lodema Blade had a 242; and Betty Ludwig finished with a 237 game.

Westland Bowl's top shooter was Dan Jacobs with a 717 which included games of 279 and 235; Bob Pniewski hit 255 for 704; John Benney had a 286 game; and Larry Taylor had a respectable 280 game to round out the men's scoring.

Jane Martin paced the ladies on games of 222-219-213 for a 654 total and 148 average Colleen Griffin improved her average with a 244 game and 596 series.

In the younger set, 17-year-old, Ryan Wilson put together games of 226-235-244 for a 705 total; Andy Quinton had a 265 for 683; and last, but not least, 8-year-Tad Quattlander was on his way to high score shooting with a 169 game.

Now that the fall-spring session is working its way to an end, it is a good time to start thinking about joining a summer league. Summer leagues are an excellent way to keep your game in shape or try something new. Check the counters at the local bowling centers for a listing of what is available.

Over 30 hockey

Who'll wear playoff crowns?

It's playoff time in the Wayne-Westland Over 30 hockey leagues. The final week in the season saw Mic-Dago Pub set down Division Champ Brock Builders by a score of 5-4.

Mic-Dago's had a 3-0 lead at one point before Brock's made its come back.

Dale Fawkes tallied for three goals to give Mic-Dago's the victory. Art Auto scored once and received one assist while John Davis accounted for one goal. Norm Beasley finished with three assists and Ed Glaub picked up two assists. Ron Hays received one assist in the contest.

Dave Frankling scored twice for Brock Builders with Ed Harmon rattling the net for a goal and an assist.

Jim McMaster scored the remaining goal. Bob Wood, John Castellands, Marv Borycki, Gary Pierce and Bill Brown each drew one assist.

All Sorts Sports clinched its final game, skating past a determined Tastee Freeze squad 5-3. Ed Spontack tallied for two goals and picked up one assist; Rick Wolkowicz rattled the net once and received two assists while Larry Kaifesh and Dave Milam accounted for a goal apiece.

Mike Beals finished the game with two assists and Tom DiLaura, Dave Cherry, Craig Averill and Ken Knick picked up one assist.

Gene Tauraienen scored once and picked up an assist for the Freezers, while Rich Riedel and Nick Palise accounted for one goal each. Picking up one assist were Jerry Tapp, Bob Capler, Tom Bryans and Jim McClure.

Family Heating skated to a 4-2 win over Futurama and finished in second place in its division. A third period surge by Family Heating contributed to the victory. Jack Bockstanz finished the game with three goals with Al Pulk putting in the final puck.

Ron Wojewski picked up two assists and Bill Creekmore and Ernest Hunter received one assist.

Paul Briski and Don Middaugh put Futurama on the scoreboard with Ron Tyranski, Phil Cerne and Claud Johnston assisting.

Johnson's Carbonic finished the season on a winning note by handing Jake's Lounge a 4-2 loss. Ron Johnson tallied for two goals; Joe Soukup and Layne Cardinal scored one and picked up one assist. Bob Murray received two assists in the game.

Ken Beal scored one goal and picked up one assist for Jake's with Jay Middaugh accounting for the second goal. Roger Wodgenske received one assist.

Little Bill's Trophies carded a 7-3 victory over Etronic as John Clearwood lodged a hat trick in the record book. Dave Zajac rattled the net twice. Jerry Johnson and Ron Jacobs had single tallies. Bil Keskey and Ray LeCornu received two assists, while Dave Weaver, Keith Middaugh, Mark Lafond and Jerry Burzuk finished with one assist.

Dan Demers tallied for one goal and one assist for Etronic while John Kunz and Guy Moise added single tallies. Chuck Jennett and Al Farina received one assist in the game.

With the regular season completed the following awards have been established:

Berrington Division Champs: All Sorts Sports; Bonkowski Division Champs: Brock Builders.

Most Points Received: Dave Frankling (65).

All games will be played at the Wayne Arena. There is no admission charge.

Flyers shoot down Romulus

The championship at Ypsi is at 7:30 p.m. on Friday.

The Bond twins — Bryan and Andre — led Willow Run to its victory. Andre, a 6-4 junior forward, sank his first seven first half points and wound up with a game high 20, while Bryan connected on six of nine shots from the field for 13 points.

The game was tied at 42-all, when Brian's jump shot found the mark. Romulus' Grant Long missed a dunk shot and the Flyers managed to widen the gap when Ossie Mim scored on a three-point play.

"I felt we played 28 minutes of pretty good basketball," Coach Wilkerson remarked, "but then we broke down for four minutes and that was it."

Willow run earned an 18-14 first period lead and stayed out in front 32-25 at the half, but Romulus came back and outscored their rivals 17-10 in the third period to tie the game at 42-all. Willow Run outscored the Eagles 23-13 in the last period.

Mills finished the night with 16 points and Long added 12, while Sean Perkins counted 10.

Romulus wasted Mills' 21 points, 11 rebounds and nine assists in losing to Flint Southwestern 70-57 earlier in the week. Long also contributed 15 points, 10 rebounds and four assists, which wasn't enough to stop Southwestern's 6-5 Andre Wiley who pumped in 25 points and hauled down 18 rebounds.

The one-sided victory caught the enthusiastic swim coach by surprise.

"We were not seeded No. 1 in all of the events," Coach Karabees explained, "therefore I didn't expect us to sweep all 11 events. Needless to say we're happy and proud of these kids."

Coach Karabees was quick to note "that the neat thing about this is all of the kids are coming back."

The Spartans produced "triple champs" in Ron Wohlfeil, who won the 50 and 100 yard freestyle events before competing on the winning freestyle relay team. Mark Bahn also earned three gold medals with victories in the 200-yard individual medley and the 100-yard breaststroke, while he also competed on the final relay.

Mark Wohlfeil anchored the championship medley relay team and also took part in the freestyle relay team's win. He won the 200-yard freestyle as well.

Cherry Hill heads for Grand Rapids Community College on Friday where the Spartans will swim for Class B state honors.

Latimer wraps up season

Northern Michigan University's junior forward and tri-captain Kevin Latimer who hails from Inkster scored 12 points and grabbed 17 rebounds in the Wildcats' 78-76 home loss to Wisconsin-Parkside last week.

Latimer has sat out the last two games because of an ankle injury. He had nine rebounds in the OT win at Grand Valley, his high for the season. He also averaged 4.7 points and 3.2 rebounds in 24 appearances.

Wayne Memorial's Pollis Robertson (52) finds his road to the basket blocked by this Taylor Truman defender in Friday night's Great Lakes 8 Conference finale. Robertson and his teammates failed to stop Truman's title express 43-31 as both sides suffered from a miserable "cole night". Robertson however accounted for 12 of his team's points and Tyress Wimberly contributed 11.

Wayne is second best in GL-8 swim

The "lack of depth" cost Wayne Memorial a share of the final Great Lakes 8 Conference Swim Championship.

Picking up three gold medals, two of those by Matt Hathorne, Coach Jim McPartlin's Zebras swam second to Monroe at the league championships held last week at Wyandotte High. Because the present league will be disbanded after the current school year, Monroe will own the final Great Lakes 8 title.

Hathorne set a league and school record in winning the 200-yard freestyle in 1:46.8 and he also claimed a gold in the 100-yard butterfly.

Wayne's only other gold medalist was Eric Head, a winner in the 100-yard freestyle. The Wayne senior finished a close second to Todd Watkins of Monroe with both swimmers touching in at identical times of 22.4.

Head, Hathorne, Steve Soules, Mike Greuber and Brian Byndas were named to the all-conference teams.

Wayne finished the record season with an impressive 12-1 record and will travel to Michigan State on Friday to compete in the state championships.

Rockets are off target

points and allowing the Rockets to close the gap at halftime to 23-22. Todd Jennings scored four of his team-high 13 points in the quarter, helped along by four from Greg Gill and two from Jack Walker (who will wear Maize and Blue in the fall).

In the third quarter, Huron nearly blew the game wide open as four of their starters — Schmunk, Noland, David Bowman, Bill Gray, and Marcus Gates — hit for four points apiece. They built a 41-33 lead by halftime but the determination of the Rockets prevented the River Rats from putting the game completely out of reach. Paul Grazulis hit for 3 points and Jennings tossed in four more to keep the Rockets within striking distance.

And strike they did! They put on a rally that had the many Rocket fans exasperated by game's end. It was racehorse basketball the rest of the way as Glenn outscored the Hurons, 30-25. They closed the gap to one several times but could not get past that deficit. The free throw did them in as they hit only 9 of 20 for the game.

As an oldtime baseball manager once said about walks: "When I die, let them inscribe on my tombstone 'Oh, those bases on balls'. Coach Henry's tombstone will probably read, "Oh, those free throws."

But nothing stands in the way of this team. Grazulis hit six points and Mike Baydarian added six more to key the rally. They were helped along by four points from junior Dave Long off the bench and four from Gill, who was voted All-League on Saturday.

However, the rally was cut short by Huron's own determination not to lose the game, and the hot hand of Schmunk who scored 8 points in the final quarter to bring his game total to 14. Noland hit seven more points, five on free throws, to lead both teams with 16 points.

Now the Rockets prepare for their district tournament game on Wednesday against Plymouth Canton. A win there would propel them into the championship game on Friday night, March 11, at 7:30 p.m.

The Junior Varsity suffered a 67-36 loss to the Hurons on Friday night. Dave Jensen and Ron Taig scored 11 points apiece to lead the Rockets. The loss dropped their record to 15-5, which tied the school record for the most victories by a Junior Varsity team.

All in the family...

Jack Demmer continues tradition of sales that spans three generations

By SUE BACHAND
ANP Staff Writer

Jack Demmer operates a family business... a family business which spans three generations and grows with each sale at the Ford dealership in Wayne which bears his name.

The Demmer history in car sales began with his father who was a used car salesman in Detroit, continued with Demmer who sold his first used car at 16, and extends to his sons Bill and Jim who are now an integral part of the Michigan Avenue dealership.

"I guess I was just born into this business," Demmer noted, "with my dad being a used car salesman, I just thought everybody was in the car business."

Demmer continued his used car career until 1957 when he began as an Edsel dealer in Wayne. His philosophy, even then, was a combination of fair dealing and understanding of customer needs. That, he claims, is the main ingredient of success in the car dealership. "We believe in good deals, good service and the kind of treatment that we'd want to receive," Demmer said. "What we offer for the price of the car is something you don't get everywhere — consideration."

Demmer explained that the basic motto of the dealership is "We take care of our customers, and they take care of us," and that those are not just words to him or to his sons. "We really are concerned about the needs of our customers, that makes the difference," Demmer added.

The most popular car at the dealership these days, without question, is the Ford Escort. Demmer attributes the popularity of this model to the new styling, the low gas mileage and the quality of the automobile for the money. "The guys at the Wayne Assembly Plant are doing a great job putting these cars together," Demmer said. "I'd stack the Escort up against any car in the world in it's price range," he added.

Demmer explained that prices on this popular model ranged from $5,000 to $10,000, depending on the customer's selection of optional equipment and available additions, but that he found them all to be quality automobiles.

Another revolution at the dealership, according to Demmer is the new Thunderbird — a car Demmer says is good for everybody, including the competition. "I look to the Thunderbird to do the automobile industry what the Mustang did. We call that our oom-pa-pa car, it's got so much pizzazz and jazz. It looks and handles like a dream," De-

Demmer continued. "The Thunderbird is a car that is getting customers to thinking they'd like to own an automobile again."

Demmer presently has 100 used automobiles and 235 new vehicles for customers to choose from on the large lot — "and that includes trucks" — Demmer was quick to add.

Demmer's experience and philosophy of fair dealing and customer concern extend to the 10 salesmen he employs and to the 35 employees in the parts and repair divisions at the dealership. Business at the establishment has increased 36 percent on cars and 28 percent on truck sales over February of last year — an indication to Demmer that he is doing something right.

"It's a good year for Jack Demmer, better than last year and to me that's a good indication that things are getting better everywhere," he commented.

"We are very bullish on Wayne. This is a good business town and we have a lot of local customers," Demmer noted. "We like to keep Wayne business in Wayne when we can."

Demmer explained that another factor in the success of his business is his sincere intent to follow up and make it right," he stated. He backs his claim with his rating from Ford Motor Company which recently determined that only 1.9 of every 100 Demmer clients ever had to approach Ford for any adjustment or maintenance. "We take care of our customers' needs right here," Demmer said.

Leasing and fleet sales and rentals at the dealership are now under the management of Jim Demmer and Bill is presently general manager at the establishment.

Demmer is open Monday and Thursday evenings until 9 for added customer convenience.

Bill, Jack and Jim Demmer are a real family team...
